Under Campaign Finance rules, the maximum allowable contribution is $2,000 per person. Contributions from NYC residents up to $250 will be matched 8-1 with public funds. If a contributor has business dealings with the City as defined in the Campaign Finance Act, such contributor may contribute only up to $400 for mayor. We can only accept contributions from individuals. Contributions from corporations, LLCs, etc. are not allowed. Political contributions are not tax deductible.

DOING BUSINESS CONTRIBUTORS

An individual is generally considered to be 'doing business' with the City if he/she is a registered NYC lobbyist or is a principle owner, principal officer, or senior manager of an entity that has engaged in, held, applied for, or proposed on any of the following during the prior 12 months:

- Contracts, concessions, franchises, or grants that total over $100,000 other than contracts awarded by competitive bid.
- Economic development agreements, including payments in lieu of taxes, City tax incentives, and City financing.
- Contracts for the investment of pension funds or related services.
- The sale, purchase, or lease of real property with or by the City, unless by public auction or competitive sealed bid.
- Uniform Land Use Review Procedure (ULURP) actions, or City Charter office lease or zoning change applications.

Contributions from or intermediated by individuals doing business with the City will not be matched with public funds.
